02 How to make a claim

If you've had an accident

If you're involved in an accident, put your safety first with these 4 steps:

1. Turn off your engine
2. Switch on your hazard lights
3. Get everyone out of the car and to a safe place
4. Call 999 if anyone's injured or the road is blocked

Remember, you and your passengers are more important than your car.

We're aware that not all claims are accidents. If your car has been stolen or damaged please let us know as soon as possible.

It's important that you report anything that happens to your vehicle as soon as it's safe to do so. Usually, the easiest and quickest way to make a claim or to notify us of anything that's happened is by logging into your Account or call 0345 606 1373.

What to do if you're involved in an accident

What's...	...required
Tell us about any other vehicles involved	Vehicle registration number, make, model – get it all down.
Tell us about any other drivers	What's their name, where do they live, what's their phone number?
Don't forget their insurance details	You'll need to swap yours with any other drivers.
Tell us about any passengers including third party passengers	Have they been injured? Try to obtain their name(s) and contact details.
Was anyone else hurt?	Make notes of their injuries, as best as you can.
Were there any witnesses?	Grab their details too, if possible.
Got your phone handy?	If it's safe to do so, take photos or videos.
Did the emergency services attend the scene?	Give us the police incident number and the police officer's name.

We know it's a lot to ask, especially following the shock of an accident, but please try to gather as much information at the scene as you can.

If your car isn't driveable remember to take out any personal or valuable possessions before you leave it.

And what not to do

Some things you could do without thinking could put you at a disadvantage. So, please don't:

- ✗ Take the blame or admit fault (even if you feel guilty)
- ✗ Offer to pay for any repairs
- ✗ Reply to a third party who contacts you, even if it's a court or a solicitor. It might seem rude, but if you're sent a notice of prosecution, inquest, fatal accident enquiry, court summons or claim form, don't respond. Instead, send it straight to us. We'll manage the communication for you. That's what we're here for. Just Get in touch with us by visiting esure.com/login, logging into your Account and click 'Need help?'
- ✗ Admit liability for, or negotiate to settle, any claim without our written permission. We have full discretion in the settlement of your claim or any legal proceedings which may arise and we may take over, defend or settle, or take up the claim in your name for our own benefit. You and anyone covered by the policy must provide all the information, documentation and help we need to do this

What happens once you've made a claim?

We'll start working as quickly, fairly and seamlessly as possible. You must share with us all the information we ask for to help us settle your claim. This includes things like:

- Proof of ownership - something to show you own or have a legal interest in the car, or whatever it is you're claiming for
- Data from your car - including things like dash cam footage, records from on board computers and other vehicle systems
- Other cover you might have - sometimes other insurers will contribute towards your claim

When we wouldn't cover your claim

Here are a few examples but this list is not exhaustive:

- If the driver of your car was driving while unfit due to drugs or being over the legal drink driving limit
- If the driver of your car is convicted of failure to supply a specimen when legally required to do so

In these circumstances we wouldn't pay for damage to your car or personal accident damage to the driver.

If we had to pay any claim made by a third party, we could recover those costs from you.

- If your car wasn't registered with the UK's Driving and Vehicle Licensing Authority (DVLA) or the registered keeper details were incorrect.
- If we suspect fraud. If you or anyone representing you misrepresents the facts when making a claim, we might not settle the claim.

In these situations, we might also:

- ✗ Cancel the policy and any other policies underwritten by us or treat them as though they never existed
- ✗ Keep any premiums you've paid
- ✗ Take back any money we may have already paid to you
- ✗ Notify the police and/or other authorities

If you or any person has an accident covered by this section, we'll pay:

- ✓ Solicitors fees' to represent that person at a coroner's inquest or fatal injury inquiry, as long as we have agreed to do so beforehand
- ✓ The cost of reasonable legal services, which we'll arrange, to defend that person against a charge of manslaughter or causing death by careless, or dangerous driving or in a magistrates' court proceedings involving allegations arising out of a collision with a third-party vehicle or pedestrian

We'll only arrange such legal services where it's more likely than not that the defence will be successful.

Such cover is limited to instances where it's in our own interest to make payments for the purpose of defending or representing you and any other person covered by this section.

As the insurer or last known insurer of the car, we may be responsible to pay for any third-party claim that arises. If we have had reason to reject a claim for damage to your vehicle, we may still need to settle the third-party claim. In these circumstances we can recover any of these costs from you directly.

In more detail

How we'll settle your claim for loss or damage

If you use one of our recommended repairers

- ✓ You don't need to get an estimate. Our repairer will see to that and start work as soon as possible
- ✓ The repair work comes with a 5-year guarantee while the parts will be covered by the manufacturer's warranty.
- ✓ Our repairers might use parts that aren't made by your car's manufacturer but are still an equivalent part. We'll pay up to the cost shown in the supplier's UK price list plus any reasonable fitting costs
- ✓ We have recommended repairers across the UK mainland

Courtesy car

- ✓ A courtesy car is provided while your car is being repaired by our recommended repairer as part of a valid claim, as long as you have a comprehensive policy which remains in force for the duration of repairs. We aim to provide a courtesy car to you within 2 working days from when your car goes in for repair. If your car's electric and we're unable to provide an electric courtesy car, we'll pay £50 to cover the additional cost of fuel.
- ✓ Policy terms and conditions apply whilst using the courtesy car
- ✓ You will be responsible for the courtesy car, including paying for fuel and any parking fines, motor offences and fixed penalties, and any congestion or toll charges incurred
- ✗ A courtesy car is not available under this section if your car has been stolen and not found, or considered to be a total loss
- ✗ If we decide that your car is a total loss after providing the courtesy car, it will be withdrawn
- ✗ It's not available for windscreen-only claims
- ✗ A courtesy car is not available if you suffer an accident or loss when driving outside the UK

If you use a non-recommended repairer

- Send us a detailed estimate from the repairer, plus details of the accident or damage, as soon as possible
- We will not provide a courtesy car
- We'll pay to have your car fixed only if we've agreed the costs first
- We'll only pay for repairs that were caused by the accident and are reasonable and necessary
- You'll need to pay an additional £200 excess on top of any other excesses
- We can reject an estimate

If your car's not driveable

We'll pay reasonable costs to have it taken to the nearest suitable garage and delivered to your home once fixed. We'll also transport you and any passengers to a safe place. If the car can't be fixed, we may put it into safe storage before it's sold or taken for scrap, as at this point the car will belong to us.

New car replacement

We'll replace your car with a new one of the same make and model if:

- Your car is less than a year old, and
- You or your partner were the first registered keeper, and
- It's been stolen and not recovered or the cost of repairing the car is more than 55% of the manufacturer's latest UK list price (including taxes), and
- The legal owner agrees

If we can't find a replacement, we'll give you or the legal owner, either what you paid for it or what it currently costs to buy, whichever is less.

If we decide your car's a total loss

We'll decide that your car is a total loss if it's uneconomical to repair or when it won't be safe to repair it.

We'll pay the legal owner the car's 'market value' (see below) at the time of the loss.

If your car is leased, on contract hire, or bought through a finance agreement, we'll pay the legal owner (which is the finance or leasing company) the outstanding settlement amount, up to the car's market value.

The type of agreement you have with the finance or leasing company will tell us how we make payment. We'll talk you through this at the time, but generally:

- When the car's market value is more than what's owed to the finance or leasing company: we'll pay them the market value of the car and we'll give you any leftover amount.
- When the car's market value is less than what's owed to the finance or leasing company: we'll pay them the market value and you will need to pay the remaining balance.

However, this will depend on the type of agreement you have. We will discuss this with you in detail in due course. Once we settle your claim the car will belong to us. If you'd prefer to keep it, please contact us and we can discuss this with you. We'll look at the salvage category to make sure it's safe for you to keep it and explain the amount we'll take off of your final settlement payment. This is because you'll be buying the car back from us.

You'll still be responsible for any policy excesses applicable to the claim which will be deducted off the final settlement value.

Market value

The 'market value' is the amount your car was worth on the open market at the time of the loss. This is based on research using independent guides such as Glass's Guide, CAPS, Autotrader and Percayso Vehicle Intelligence.

We look at cars of the same make, model and age as yours. We also take into account market conditions and the mileage and condition of your car at the time of the loss, including the cost of repairing any pre-existing damage if applicable. We'll adjust the value if it's been subject to a total loss claim before and if it doesn't have a valid MOT in place.

If there's something you haven't told us about

When settling your claim, we may reduce the amount we pay if we find you haven't told us something you should have when taking out your policy. For example, any modifications to your vehicle, convictions, or significantly higher mileage than declared where your premium would change. We call this a 'proportionality deduction'.

Personalised plate

If you have a personalised number plate and you want to keep it you'll need to contact the DVLA and transfer it onto a DVLA Retention Certificate in your name. You'll have 2 weeks to do this from the date we tell you that the car's a total loss.

What happens with my policy following the settlement of my claim?

You have a couple of options;

- Cancel your policy – you must pay the remaining monthly instalments. We will deduct these monthly until the end of your policy period. Alternatively we may deduct this from your settlement value if you advise us to do so.
- Insure another car on your policy for the remainder of your policy period – we'll tell you of any changes to your premium or the level of cover we'll provide

If you've paid your annual premium upfront, we will not be able to refund you any portion of the premium.

05 Glass damage

Making a claim as soon as you spot a chip means our service provider may be able to fix it rather than replace it. This means you'll pay a smaller excess. The easiest way to make a glass claim is via your Account or call our service provider on 0800 085 8459.

What you're covered for

If your windscreen is chipped, cracked or smashed, we'll fix or replace it. Claiming for a windscreen also doesn't affect your no claims discount. Make your claim as soon as you spot a chip, though, because it could quickly turn into a more expensive job.

Your cover also extends to your side and rear windows, recalibrating any advanced electronics that relate to the windscreen, and fixing scratches or damage to the bodywork caused by the broken glass.

So, what's not covered?

In brief

Excesses

In detail

The amount you must pay towards any claim for loss or damage to your car or other specified instances of damage or loss. The amounts are shown in your schedule.

You'll find your excesses for any windscreen repair and replacement in your schedule.

Using your own repairer

If you choose to use your own repairer the most we'll pay towards your claim is £100

Motor Legal Protection

If you have been involved in a motor non-fault or partial non-fault accident, we can help you, anyone else named on your policy and any passengers in the car, to recover your uninsured losses.

For assistance, please call our claims team on 0345 603 7872.

For defence of motor prosecution claims or motor database disputes, please call our legal advice helpline 24/7 on 0345 850 9596.

What's covered

The maximum we will pay for legal costs per incident (excluding motor database disputes) is £100,000 (including VAT).

If we decide that you were at fault for the accident, then you won't be covered for the uninsured losses.

If you're unhappy with that decision, you can ask our lawyers to provide a second opinion.

Uninsured loss recovery

When you make a claim to recover your uninsured losses, we will assess the legal merits of the claim based on the facts presented to us and whether you have reasonable prospects for success.

We will also consider whether, applying proportionality, it is reasonable that your costs be paid under this section.

If legal assistance is necessary, we will appoint an authorised representative to deal with your claim before the commencement of any enquiry or proceedings.

- You and the insured car are involved in a non-fault or partial non-fault road traffic accident, or
- You are a pedestrian that has been involved in a non-fault road traffic accident which has resulted in your death or injury.

We will pay legal costs to recover compensation for personal injury, provided:

- You and the insured car are involved in a non-fault road traffic accident (including when the other car and/or driver cannot be identified).

Motor prosecution defence

We will pay legal costs to defend you from prosecution for an offence involving the use of the insured car.

So, what's not covered?

- Pleas of mitigation that are against the public interest
- Legal costs where funding is available to you through legal aid from the Legal Aid Agency, or any other public body, insurance policy, trade union or employer

We can recover our legal costs from you and your cover under this section will end, where you stop defending the claim without our consent and the support of your solicitor.

Motoring database dispute

We will pay legal costs up to £10,000 (including VAT) to represent you in a dispute with the police, government agency, or insurer concerning incorrect information held about you or the insured car.

07 Where you're covered to drive

Where your cover applies all year round

Your cover applies in the UK, the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands.

Driving your vehicle abroad - what you're covered for

Your policy offers similar cover to what you have in the UK for up to 90 days during each policy year when driving abroad.

This applies in any country within the Green Card Free Circulation Area. See Key words and terms in your policy booklet for further details.

If you have a comprehensive policy, and you need to claim following an accident or theft of your car abroad, we'll do one of the following:

- If your car's repairable but not driveable following the accident or attempted theft, we'll decide if it's cost-effective to bring it back for repairs in the UK
- If your car can't be repaired, it's not cost effective to bring back to the UK, or it's not recovered following a theft, we'll pay you the value of your car, less any excesses. We may make other deductions if any of the information you provided is incorrect. We'll also arrange for the disposal of your car
- If your car's legally driveable, you'll need to bring it back to the UK and then speak to us to arrange repairs

We'll decide which of these methods will be used to settle your claim.

If you have a third party fire and theft policy, we'll use one of the methods above if your car's stolen or damaged following a theft or attempted theft. As with your cover in the UK, you'll be insured for damage to other people's vehicles and property but not your own.

Your policy also covers

- Additional drivers named on your policy who are involved in an incident aboard
- Taking you and any passengers to a safe place in the event of a claim occurring
- Paying customs duty on your car in any of the countries within the Green Card Free Circulation Area, which is incurred due to damage and us deciding not to bring it back to the UK

So, what's not covered?

- There's no cover for driving your car outside of the Green Card Free Circulation Area
- Cover doesn't extend to driving vehicles other than the insured car
- A courtesy or hire car isn't available if you suffer an accident or loss when driving outside the UK
- We won't cover ongoing travel, hotel costs or bringing you or your passengers back to the UK

What happens if you're abroad for more than the 90 day limit?

- There's no need to inform us. However, after the 90 days the cover will reduce to the minimum cover you need by law to drive in any country within the Green Card Free Circulation Area. This is usually equivalent to third-party only cover.
- This means you'll be insured for damage to other people's vehicles and property but not your own. This applies as long as your car's registered in the UK.

What documents do you need to drive in the Green Card Free Circulation Area?

If you're driving in any country within the Green Card Free Circulation Area, you'll need to carry:

- All documents and road safety equipment required to abide by the relevant laws in the countries you visit
- Your certificate of motor insurance as proof that you have valid insurance cover in place
- Your driving licence
- Vehicle log book

09 Conditions that relate to your policy

Conditions

There are some conditions that apply to your cover which means we wouldn't pay your claim if they're not met. So, please read the conditions carefully.

Please ensure that all the information you have supplied is accurate and up to date. If anything changes, tell us straight away via your Account or by contacting us via live chat.

If you don't, your policy may be invalidated or cancelled, a claim may be refused or a payment could be reduced.

If you or anyone acting for you has deliberately or recklessly provided inaccurate information, this can result in immediate cancellation of your policy or voidance, meaning we will treat the policy as if it never existed.

Do the right thing...

Make sure you don't provide inaccurate information

Get the registration number right. It's vital that the Motor Insurance Database (MID) holds your correct vehicle registration number

...and prevent any upset

This can result in immediate cancellation of your policy where you or anyone acting for you has deliberately or recklessly provided inaccurate information. We may keep any premium you have paid. We may also cancel any other policy you have with us.

If not, you risk having your car seized by the police. It could also affect the validity of your policy with us.

Do the right thing...

...and prevent any upset

Report accidents and losses immediately

As soon as you become aware of an accident, theft, fire or anything else that results in death, injury or loss, you must tell us, even if it looks like there's no damage to your car. This is regardless of whether it may lead to a claim under your policy or not.

Securing your car

Take reasonable steps to protect and secure your car and contents from loss or damage.

Don't drive your car while under the influence of drink or drugs

If the driver is charged and convicted, there'll be no cover for your car or the driver – and we reserve the right to recover all of the money paid to any third parties from whoever was behind the wheel of your car.

Taking care of your car

Keep it roadworthy with a valid MOT if required by law and ensuring it's kept secure.

Note the difference between car sharing and making a profit

You're covered for carrying passengers in return for payment – for example, a contribution towards petrol – but not for profit.

Also, you're not covered if your car is adapted to carry more than 8 people.

Be sure to pay your premium

Your cover will become invalid if you don't pay your premium. We'll contact you to ask for payment. If we do not hear from you, we'll give you a final date for payment.

After that, if you still haven't paid, we'll cancel your policy.

Co-operate with us

You must co-operate with us and provide any information required to assist us with the recovery of our losses, whether your policy with us is in force or not. Rights of recovery against the supplier, manufacturer, service provider or distributor in such circumstances will automatically be transferred to us.

Keep your autonomous vehicle updated

- You must only use your car in the ways set out in the manufacturer's instructions for use. This includes their guidance on the use of any autonomous, semi-autonomous or driver assistance functions and the driving conditions in which they're used
- You must maintain all vehicle systems
- You must apply all software or system updates promptly and as instructed by your car's manufacturer
- You, or anyone acting on your behalf, must not interfere or tamper with any vehicle system

Endorsements which may apply to your policy

These endorsements only apply if shown on your schedule. Failure to comply with these could result in your claim being reduced or rejected.

All cover suspended

This is where we put your policy on hold when there is no car to insure.

Cover suspended except for fire and theft

This is a short-term situation available when you've notified the DVLA that your car is off the road (SORN).

Missing tracker

We won't cover you for loss or damage to your car or its contents unless it's fitted with an active, fully working tracking device.

10 Your no claims discount

Everybody loves a no claims discount (NCD). The reward for claims-free motoring.

Here, you'll find out all you need to know regarding your entitlement to one and how to transfer it easily from your previous insurer to a policy with us.

What you need to do

For most policies, we can verify NCD entitlement using the NCD database. If we can't, we'll be in touch to ask you to provide us with proof in the form of a renewal invitation or letter from your previous insurer. The no claims discount must be dated within the last 2 years and must be from a private insurer (not a company car or fleet cover). This also acts as confirmation of the cancellation of your previous policy.

If we do ask, please send the proof to us within 28 days of the start date of your policy otherwise we'll be forced to cancel your policy. For more details, check out section 12.

To find out where to send your proof of no claims discount, chat to us via live chat which can be accessed via your Account.

What happens to your NCD if a claim is made under your policy?

If we've been unable to recover all our losses in relation to a claim - known as 'non-recoverable' or 'fault claim' - your NCD entitlement will be reduced at renewal as explained in your schedule.

If you allow someone to drive your car when they're not insured to do so under your policy and they are involved in an incident that results in a fault claim, your NCD will be reduced.

These claims won't affect your NCD:

- ✓ Windscreen damage claims which fall under section 5
- ✓ Emergency medical treatment fees paid under section 3
- ✓ Claims where we've been able to recover all of our losses on your behalf – also referred to as a 'recoverable' or 'non-fault claim'
- ✓ Claims where the third party responsible for the damage has been identified and they're not insured
- ✓ Vandalism claims if the incident has not been caused by another vehicle, has been reported to the police and a crime reference number (CRN) can be provided
- ✓ Claims where you've hit a wild or domestic animal or they have hit your car

What happens if you don't make a claim?

Your NCD will increase by 1 year, up to a maximum of 20 years.

No claims discount protection

You may be able to add this:

- When you have 4 or more NCD years
- When you purchase the policy
- When you receive the renewal invitation

If you'd like to purchase no claims discount protection, simply visit esure.com/login.

11 Want to change your cover?

We've agreed to issue your policy based on the information you provided, so please make sure your details are always up to date.

We wouldn't want to be in a position where we're forced to cancel your policy or treat your policy as if it never existed, refuse all claims and keep any premium you've paid.

And so, the easiest way to keep us informed is via live chat which can be accessed through your Account.

Things you need to tell us about include but are not limited to:

- ✓ Change of car
- ✓ Change of drivers
- ✓ Change of address and/or contact details
- ✓ You or any named driver:
 - Becomes aware of any medical or physical condition which may affect their ability to drive

12 Cancelling or renewing your cover

Renewing your cover

When we send your renewal quote, we'll indicate if your policy will renew automatically. We'll also tell you about any changes to your policy and set out our renewal terms and conditions. And, of course, we'll explain what you need to do to renew your cover. You can also go to your Account at any time throughout the period of insurance to remove the auto renewal option.

If you want to change the way you pay your premiums, or you've decided not to renew your cover, please go to your Account at least 5 days before your policy is due to renew. Or contact us via live chat. If you don't, we might have already applied to your bank for payment of your premium.

As paying by direct debit is a lending decision, a hard credit search will be performed at renewal and will remain on your credit report for 12 months. This allows us to report your monthly payment history to our credit reference agency and it'll appear as insurance on your credit report. A hard credit search won't be applied if the policy is paid upfront in full.

Cancelling your cover

Things change. We know that. However, please be aware that if you or we cancel your policy or any optional extras/lifestyle packs, you won't be covered for any accident or incident that occurs after the cancellation.

How to cancel

Get in touch with us by visiting esure.com/login, logging into your Account and clicking 'Need help?'.

Important points to consider before cancelling

- Your policy can only be cancelled from the date you contact us or any later date that you ask unless you can provide us with proof that you transferred possession of the car on a certain date or the car has been written off or stolen
- When you cancel your policy, all cover provided by the optional extras/lifestyle packs will automatically be cancelled at the same time
- You must still pay any of the appropriate premium due. You will also be charged a fee by esure
- If you or we cancel your policy and any optional extras/lifestyle packs, you won't be covered for any accident or incident that occurs after cancellation
- As all optional extras and lifestyle packs are linked to your policy, cancellation of any optional extras or lifestyle packs will result in cancellation of your esure Flex policy
- If you cancel your Direct Debit this doesn't mean that you have cancelled your policy

What it will cost when you cancel your policy

- You have 14 days from the date you take out your policy or the start date of your policy, whichever is the later, to cancel your policy. If you cancel within this 14-day period, you will receive a refund of the premium paid less a fee payable to esure
- If you cancel before the date your policy starts, you will receive a full refund and no fee will be charged
- After 14 days you may cancel your policy. We will refund that part of your premium not yet used less a fee payable to esure, or charge you for any outstanding payment that may be due and the fee payable to esure
- You will receive a refund of any lifestyle packs/optional extras purchased, minus a pro-rata charge for the time on cover subject to there being no claims
- We won't refund your premium if a fault claim has been made against your policy within the current period of cover or the claim remains open. In this situation, we will cancel your policy but your full annual premium will remain due plus the fee payable to esure. If you pay by credit instalments, you must still pay the balance of the full annual premium and the fee payable to esure

Our right to cancel your policy

We have the right to cancel your policy at any time by giving you 7 days' notice in writing where there is a valid reason for doing so. We will send our cancellation notice to the latest contact details we have for you and will set out the reason for cancellation. Valid reasons may include but are not limited to:

- Where we have been unable to collect a payment (premium or credit instalment), we will write to you requesting payment by a specific date. If we do not receive payment by this date, we will write to you again notifying you that payment has not been received and giving you 7 days' notice of a final date for payment. We will also tell you that if payment is not received by this final date, your policy will be cancelled. If payment is not received by that final date, we will cancel your policy with immediate effect and notify you in writing that such cancellation has taken place. Your credit agreement may also be cancelled. We may also refer your details to a debt collection agency and your credit rating may be impacted;
- Where you are required in accordance with the terms and conditions of this policy to co-operate with us, or send us information or documentation and you fail to do so in a way that materially affects our ability to process a claim, or our ability to defend our interests. In this case, we may issue a cancellation letter and we will cancel your policy if you fail to co-operate with us or provide the required information or documentation by the end of the 7-day cancellation notice period;
- Where we do not receive evidence of your no claim discount within 21 days from the start date of your policy. If we have not received such evidence by the end of the 21-day period, we will issue a cancellation letter and we will cancel your policy if we do not receive evidence of your no claim discount by the end of the 7-day cancellation notice period;
- Where there is a material failure by you to take care of your car as required by the paragraph headed Taking care of your car in section 9

- Where we identify serious grounds such as the use of or threat of violence or aggressive or abusive behaviour, intimidation or bullying towards our staff, agents, suppliers or our property

If we cancel your policy, and you have made a claim or been involved in an incident, you will still have to pay the full premium plus the fee esure charges. If you have not made a claim or been involved in an incident, you will have to pay the premium for the period of cover you have used plus the fee esure charges. In some cases, this will result in you receiving a refund of the part of your premium you have not yet used less any fee that applies. The current fees are shown in Your Agreement with esure Services Limited.

If we cancel your car insurance at any time, we will automatically cancel any cover provided by the optional extras and lifestyle packs. The premium you paid for these optional extras and lifestyle packs will be refunded less a pro rata charge for the time you have been on cover unless you have made a claim.

Immediate cancellation

We also have the right to cancel your policy immediately where we have reasonable grounds to believe you or anyone acting for you has deliberately or recklessly provided inaccurate information or acted fraudulently. We may keep any premium you have paid. We may also cancel any other policy you have with us. Please see section 9.

Remember, cancelling your Direct Debit does not mean you've cancelled your policy.

13 If you want to complain

Our complaints procedure

We always aim to get things right first time for our customers although we know that sometimes you'll feel this hasn't happened. If that's the case, we want to hear about this, so we have an opportunity to put things right for you.

If you do need to complain follow the steps below and we'll do our best to try and resolve things at the earliest possible stage:

Step One

To get in touch with us, visit esure.com/login and clicking 'Need help?'. If you'd then like to chat with one of our agents, simply type in 'Complaint' and you'll be connected to our live chat service.

If it's about a claim, then you can call us on 0345 601 6736.

Every effort will be made to sort things out for you within 3 working days. Once we have resolved your complaint, we will send you an email or letter just to confirm you're happy with what's been agreed - this is a Summary Resolution Communication. This will tell you about the complaints service we offer and how the Financial Ombudsman Service can help, should you need it.

Step Two

When a complaint can't be resolved quickly, or you aren't happy with the initial resolution, our Customer Relations team are here to help you. This is a dedicated team who will carry out an independent review for you, and they act with the full authority of our Chief Executive.

We'll contact you to tell you who will own your complaint and how long you can expect to wait for a decision. We'll write to you with our view within 8 weeks from the date you first complained – this is known as a 'final decision' letter.

Our complaints procedure (continued)

The email address is esureflex.customerrelations@esure.com or you can write to; Customer Relations Department, esure, The Equinox, 19 Cadogan Street, G2 6QQ

Step Three

If you're still unhappy following step one or step two, or on the rare occasion a final decision letter hasn't been sent to you within 8 weeks, you can approach the Financial Ombudsman Service. They're an independent body who have been set up to resolve disputes between customers and financial companies, including insurers.

You have the right to refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service, free of charge – but you must do so within 6 months of the date of the final decision letter. If you don't refer your complaint in time, the Ombudsman won't have our permission to consider your complaint and so will only be able to do so in very limited circumstances. For example, if the Ombudsman believes that the delay was as a result of exceptional circumstances.

Credit search: We conduct two types of searches on your credit file. One of these is done at quote stage and the other is done when you purchase or renew a policy and pay by instalments. Insurance Quotation Searches (Soft Search) occur when you have got a quote from us for Insurance, or if your policy is due to renew in the next 60 days. This will leave a search footprint which is a record left by the Credit Reference Agency every time your Credit Report is searched. This will remain on your credit report for 12 months and will appear as Insurance Quotation on your credit report. A hard credit search occurs when you purchase or renew an insurance policy with us and pay by instalments. This search is done when we have to make a lending decision. This remains on your credit report for 12 months. It will appear as Insurance on your credit report. A hard credit search won't be applied if the policy is paid upfront in full.
